Crave

The love I want
is the kind
that is capable of remorse
but should never need it

I want a love
that is oblivious
to pain
and hurt
and breaking spirits

I want a love
that is mine
and that is willing to be shared

I want a love
that I can lean on
when times
are tough

The love I want
will find me
when it is ready
in an earthly form -
that looks just like you.
