fisherman

he's dressed nicely, shirt pressed and tucked neatly.
he stand fifteen feet from my rapids view
and casts his line.
what is he hoping to catch?
a fish? that would be obvious.
most men fish to forget.
I wonder what he is forgetting... lost love? love that never was?
or simply clearing his mind for the week ahead?
whatever is passing through his mind -
good luck fisherman,
in reeling in your answer
